

Example format for statement of compliance with this standard

Packaging identification

Assessment reference.

Identification of principal materials used.

Part 1 Summary of assessment

Standard/Report	Assessment requirement	Claim	Note
1.1 Prevention by source reduction	ensure only minimum adequate amount of material in the packaging system (EN 13428)	YES
1.2. Heavy metals	ensure below maximum permitted levels for components (CR 13695-1)	YES
1.3. Dangerous substances	ensure in compliance with EN 13428	YES
2. Reuse	ensure reusability in all terms of the standard for the functional unit of packaging (EN 13429)	YES
3.1 Recovery by material recycling.	ensure recyclability in all terms of the standard for the functional unit of packaging (EN 13430)	YES
3.2. Energy recovery	ensure energy recoverability in all terms of the standard for the functional unit of packaging (EN 13431)
3.3. Organic recovery	ensure compostability in all terms of the standard for the functional unit of packaging (EN 13432)

NOTE Conformity with EN 13427 requires affirmative responses to sections 1.1, 1.2, 1.3 and to at least one of 3.1; 3.2; 3.3. In addition, where a claim of reuse is made section 2 should also record affirmative responses.

Part 2 Statement of conformity

In the light of the assessment results recorded in part I above, this packaging is claimed to comply with the requirements of EN 13427.

Signed on behalf of (Name and address of supplier)

Signature :

Position : Date : 5.3.2009

Supplier as defined in EN 13427.

UNIPAP SK a.s.
Gogoľova 3

851 01 Bratislava

ICD: 36 285 668

ICUPH: SK2022150735